FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WCA Tribute to Women Celebrates 25 Years and Seeks Nominations

Friday, January 27, 2012. For 25 years, Tribute to Women, the Women's Center for Advancement (formerly the YWCA) signature event, has celebrated the achievements of Omaha's distinguished leaders. The contributions of the honorees make our community extraordinary. Five women will be honored on Tuesday, June 5 at the annual luncheon.

The intent and purpose of this award is to recognize women in our community who have set an example of human achievement and who serve as active role models of citizenship, accomplishment, service and/or overcoming challenging life circumstances.

Those who wish to nominate women in the community are encouraged to download the nomination form from the WCA website, complete the form, and submit by noon on Friday, February 17. A separate nomination form must be completed for each nominee.

You can also obtain a nomination packet by calling the WCA Development office at 402-345-6555 or email lorib@wcaomaha.org.

*The Women's Center for Advancement's (formerly known as the YWCA-Omaha) mission is to help women and their families build lives of strength, growth and self-sufficiency. The WCA provides opportunities to create and take steps on the path toward self-determination and self-sufficiency. The organization assists women, wherever they might be on their journey, in achieving personal, social and economic success. The mission is achieved through programs and services that include violence and assault advocacy and intervention, career and economic empowerment services, counseling services, preventive training education, as well as nonviolence programs.
